Dear Educator

Welcome to the 37th annual Michigan Social Studies Olympiad! The Olympiad offers students the unique opportunity to creatively apply what they have been learning in their social studies classes. Michigan is the only state to offer this type of state-wide event. We appreciate your willingness to guide and support your students in their Olympiad projects.

Good luck exploring this year's theme, "Choices that Changed Our World" and in your preparations for the 2023 Olympiad.

Theme – CHOICES THAT CHANGED OUR WORLD

Decisions made throughout history matter. Choices, made collectively or individually, deliberately or spontaneously impact and change the world in significant ways. Some choices solidify a person's legacy in history, while others go unrecognized or uncredited. The context of time, place, and situation matters in examining and understanding past choices. This year's 2023 Michigan Social Studies Olympiad theme, "Choices that Changed Our World," will allow students to examine significant turning points in history. Through inquiry, students will investigate the context, location, period, and people involved in these turning points. As they encounter the good, the bad, and the ugly stories of the past, they will be more able to analyze these decisions' lasting impacts and consequences.

Good luck to all Olympiad participants!

CURRENT EVENT EDITORIAL ESSAY

Divisions: Intermediate (6-8) and Senior (9-12)

Objective:

Traditionally, the most influential print editorial pages in the United States have been found in the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Time, and Washington Post. More recently, due to people increasingly obtaining current events information from social media platforms, outlets like Huffington Post, The Guardian, NPR, BBC, and Politico have also become mainstream sources of editorial information. Editorial pages are used for purposes of expressing a media brand's political leanings, spurring discussion, inciting debate, and allowing readers and prominent figures to express their opinions. Many newspapers have traditionally attempted to keep their editorial pages "balanced," in that they publish competing perspectives in comparable amounts, but some of the most prominent editorial pages have developed reputations for presenting more conservative or more liberal stances. Editorial articles are some of the most controversial and most highly circulated news pieces that appear in written media. They have sparked dialogue and helped to formulate public opinion on major public issues. However, too many students are unaware or unconcerned with this section of the newspaper until they reach post-secondary education or jobs after graduation. The objective of this event is to provide students with exposure to editorials and the process of creating an editorial essay.

Overview:

This event is an opportunity for students to write an opinion editorial, in a news media format, based on a current event. The editorial must take the form of a short essay, based on an event or events that have been relatively prominent in news media within the past year. Students will use a mix of analytical, critical, and persuasive arguments to promote a specific point of view.

Format:

Students are to produce a written news editorial that expresses a specific point of view on a current event from the past year. Unlike a traditional news piece or informative essay, the purpose of an editorial is to take a biased stand on an issue. The student author must use sources to support any facts presented to justify the perspective taken in the essay. Prior to writing their first draft, students are advised to explore several editorials from the editorial pages of the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, and Washington Post, or other national and/or local text news sources.

- Only three (3) written essays per school per division may be submitted. Submitted essays will not be returned.
- One (1) copy of the original essay is to be submitted electronically to the judge.
- Only Coaches may contact the judge for information.
- The top three (3) finalists of each division will be invited to attend the Olympiad to receive their award.

Scoring Standards (all divisions):

1. Central theme of editorial must be a reasonably prominent current event from the past year.
2. Editorial must take a clear and developed stance on an opinion pertaining to the current event.
3. At least three (3) written news pieces must be used as sources for facts presented in the essay. The student may use any amount of other types of credible sources s/he deems necessary.
4. There must be a title at the top of the first page of the body of the editorial.
5. The essay must be typed in 11 or larger font, using Times New Roman, Ariel, or Calibri font. However, there are no length requirements for the body of the editorial.
6. A separate bibliography page, listing the source of all factual information, must be attached to the end of the editorial. References on the bibliography page must be formatted to contain all pertinent information and appear professional. Attach a pdf copy of each written news piece used as a source of information (see standard 3, above).

MAPPING MICHIGAN'S PAST

Division: Elementary (Grades 3-5)

What in Michigan's history has impacted America or its people? The Mapping Michigan's Past event is intended to help develop students' knowledge of Michigan history and geography, as well as their map making and presentation skills. For this event, students will design a map which tells a story about Michigan's past and its effect on America or its people (e.g., Where did indigenous people settle? How important are Michigan's resources? Why did cities develop where they did? What did immigrants bring to Michigan?).

Maps should have a clear historical dimension, but topics dealing with modern history are acceptable. In creating a video, students will demonstrate using their map and make a statement about why the topic is important to people in Michigan today.

The video presentation

- should include introduction of student(s) and school making the presentation.
- should include a 2-3-minute explanation about the importance of the historic topic to the people of Michigan in the past and today.
- should include the student(s) demonstrating how the map explains the topic.
- should be made without notes. Students should be aware of the importance of speaking clearly and looking at the audience (camera). The viewers must hear every word that is said in the presentation.
- can use commercially produced blank outline maps, however students MUST write captions and any text, before or during the video. More than one map may be used.
- must show title and legend on each map. Sources of information must be visible at the beginning or end of the presentation.
- may include pictures.
- may not exceed 5 minutes.

MARATHON: A CITIZEN INVOLVEMENT PROJECT

All Divisions

The Marathon event will provide an entire class (or a minimum of 10 students from one class, or school-sponsored organization), the opportunity to organize and participate in an original philanthropic, long-term social studies project. The goal is for students to plan, conduct research, and carry out a service-learning project that uses their time, talent, and treasure to better their world. Being involved, contributing citizens is the essence of social studies. It is the hope that this event will encourage students to learn about their role in community, take a step toward addressing an issue, and GET INVOLVED!

RULES:

- A. A team will consist of at least 10 students. Every school can submit one entry.
- B. This project will need to have the approval of the school principal. This signature needs to be on the entry form.
- C. Students are encouraged to use resources and project ideas from the Learning to Give website. Here are some good places to get started:
 - Get Started: [<https://www.learningtogive.org/get-started>] List of 10 Ways to Get Started, #9 is a set of great 3-minute introductory videos
 - Issue Areas: [<https://www.learningtogive.org/teach/issue-areas>] Browse this page with links to issues kids care about and explore the toolkits that guide practice, including lessons, background, project ideas, and community and online resources.
 - Under the "Get Started" dropdown menu are three pages with good team building and service-learning skills: Build Community [<https://www.learningtogive.org/get-started/build-community>], Develop Skills and Knowledge [<https://www.learningtogive.org/get-started/develop-skills-and-knowledge>], and Take Action [<https://www.learningtogive.org/get-started/take-action>].
 - Projects are not limited to this resource, but it is encouraged that teachers point students to this site for structure and inspiration. The Trending [<https://www.learningtogive.org/news>] section has lots of stories and articles for ideas.
- D. Projects must be at least six weeks in length, in order to encourage thoughtful citizen involvement and philanthropy over time. Planning, meetings, and logistics are included in this timeframe.
- E. Evidence must be provided about the project. This includes photographs, student testimonies, testimonies of people who were helped, videos, social media posts and artifacts.
- F. In addition to the aforementioned evidence above, there must be a written submission that answers this question: "How did we utilize our time, talents, and treasure to better the world"? It is encouraged that both students and instructors reflect and answer this question. This writing must be in a digital format.
- G. Completed projects must be emailed to Dan St.Laurent at dstlaurent@lsps.org by the Olympiad deadline.

PHOTOJOURNALISM

Division: Intermediate (6-8) and Senior (9-12)

This event is a wonderful opportunity for the entrant to explore photography and to sharpen writing skills.

FORMAT:

- Mount 5-10 photographs and up to 300 typed words on the front of a 24 x 36 inch sturdy poster board. A foam core board is a good choice. (Use rubber cement glue to survive shipping.)
- For further information contact

PHOTOS:

Select entrant's own 4x6 inch color or black and white photos printed on photographic paper. Use no over-exposed, under-exposed or out of focus shots. Describe photos in captions or in the body of writing accurately (e.g., "1902 Wizbang", or "depicting, recreating or symbolizing the discovery of fire." Not "a photo of the discovery."). Narrow the subject and focus on photo opportunities that support the theme. Arrange the photos in a logical way and copy/decorate as desired. Keep in mind that nothing should distract from the photos.

WRITTEN MATTER:

- Be aware of the difference between reporting fact and opinion and how to support each. Resist the impulse to inject personal feeling unless fully supported with data. Use research other than the computer to retain richer, deeper detail. Personal resources such as clubs, activities and family are good options as supplemental research. Correctly identify personal resources when quoting another source. Consider what your entry might look like if your title and copy were arranged as if printed in a publication such as a news article, magazine article, brochure, pamphlet or newsletter. Captions should be brief, the same size type as the copy; and should not repeat the data in the copy. Revise and edit out ideas that do not accurately reflect theme. Proofread copy for spelling, grammar, and sentence structure.
- Entrant's name, school, division and theme should be typed under the Title/Headline on the poster front as well as on the entry form.
- Each school may submit three entries per division.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Each entry must have the completed typed form found on the following page affixed to the back of the poster. Please follow the directions on the form. Do not laminate over the form.
2. Entries must be postmarked on or before the Olympiad deadline.
3. Entries will be judged on the basis of:
 - A. Appropriate use of theme
 - B. Quality of photographs
 - C. Content of writing
 - D. Creativity
4. Entries created by more than one individual will not be judged.
